When Fortress Falls

Russian Squadron Now in the Harbor at Port Arthur

1 Attempt to Break Out

Effect a Junction With the Vladovostak Squadron. The First Japanese Army Now Engaged in Important Operations. The Russians Are Again Worst.

St. Petersburg, June 10.—5:15 p. m.—A reason to believe that the departure of the Port Arthur squadron in the event that the fortress becomes imminent is completed. They involve the evacuation of the Vladovostak. After the blockading fleet engaged the uninjured Russian will effect a junction with the Vladovostak and make a move to Vladovostok. The fact that the straits are mined and a Japanese torpedo boat fleet has been established to the fact of the Russian fleet, increases the difficulty of the, but the Russians probably rather than chances of getting a journey around Japan. The may occur at the first opportunity. The squadron is the defense of Port Arthur, reserved entire or in major even the fall of Port Arthur robbed of much of its importance from the standpoint of Russian plans.

IN BATTALION ROUTED. Engagement With the Japanese. The Japs Lost a Few.

June 10.—5 p. m.—General reports that a detachment of troops on Tuesday routed a Russian infantry, with 1,000 men, at Hai Machi, the Japanese men killed, 24 wounded. The captured two officers and 100 men. The Russians left on the thirty-three men dead or wounded, probably lost 70 men.

These detachments despatched from the force landed at an encounter a Russian four thousand cavalry, with near Su Yen and drove them towards Chi Mu Chang, losing 300 men and two officers and 28 wounded.

PREPARATIONS. Made to Prevent the Taking of St. Petersburg.

teraburg, June 10.—1 p. m.—As now appears the chance Japanese fleet will ever be in a venture up the Baltic and demonstration against the capital or that an European will be drawn into the war, evidently is taking nothing for granted. The possibility of the fall each, after sharp fighting. The Japanese casualties were sixty-five men killed or wounded.

Another Small Engagement.

Washington, June 10.—The following cablegram has been received at the Japanese legation from Tokio, dated June 9: "Kuroki reports that a detachment of our troops occupied Saimchi on June 7. Our casualties were three killed and 21 men wounded. The enemy left on the battlefield 23 killed, besides two officers and five men who were made prisoners. General Kuroki's army, co-operating with forces that landed at Taku Shan, occupied Saimchi on June 8, driving the enemy toward Tomucheng and Kaiping. The enemy consisted of four thousand cavalry and six guns. Our casualties were 3 men killed, one lieutenant, one sub-lieutenant and 28 men slightly wounded."

HAVE CONTRACTED FOR A BIG ONE.

New York, June 10.—The Hamburg-American line has placed a contract at Stettin for a twin screw passenger steamer, which, it is said, will exceed in size any vessel that has heretofore been built at German shipyard. Her dimensions will be length 710 feet, width 75 feet and depth 54 feet. With a full cargo, the displacement will be 34,920 tons, and she will have accommodation for 1,200 cabin and 2,350 steerage passengers. A novel feature in connection with this steamer will be the installation of a la carte restaurant, passengers having the option of engaging passage with or without meals. The vessel will be named the "Europa" and is to be completed in 1906. A sister ship to be called the Amerika is now being built at Belfast.

These vessels are to maintain an average speed of about 17 knots per hour, and will make the voyage to Hamburg in about nine days.

ATROCITIES Which Have Been Committed In Armenia

Will Be Diminished Under Energetic Measures

To Be Adopted By the British, French and Russian Governments Who Are Determined to Stop Them.

Paris, June 10.—1:20 p. m.—Foreign Minister Del Casse has been informed from Constantinople that the British, French and Russian ambassadors there have reached a joint agreement to present an energetic representation to the Grand Vizier to put a stop to the Armenia atrocities. It is expected that a joint representation on the subject will be submitted today. This action follows the official investigation confirming that a number of bloody combats have occurred, that villages have been destroyed and that people have been killed in Armenia.

DAUGHTER OF LEVI P. MORTON

Died This Morning in Paris From Blood Poisoning Following an Operation.

Paris, June 10.—Miss Lena Morton, daughter of Levi P. Morton, of New York, died this morning, from the effects of blood poisoning. Miss Morton's family were at the bedside when she died. The operation in itself did not arouse serious apprehension, but the appearance yesterday of blood poisoning gave the case a sudden turn. Miss Morton rallied slightly during the afternoon, but later, her case became hopeless and she sank gradually until her death occurred, early this morning. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

The deceased was 27 years of age and was the elder of the two unmarried daughters of former Vice President Morton. She was educated here while her father was United States Ambassador to France. She was a linguist, highly cultivated and was a general favorite. Her father and mother and sister, the Duchess of Valentia, remained at the private sanitarium in which the operation was performed until death occurred. Friends of the family fear the blow will seriously affect Mrs. Morton, who has recently been slightly indisposed.

BULLETIN. Berne, Switzerland, June 10.—The Russian minister here, M. V. V. Jadovsk, was shot in the street here this afternoon and seriously injured in the head. His would be assassin was arrested. The latter is believed to be a foreigner. His identity has not been ascertained.

EXPULSION FROM EXCHANGE.

An Old Firm Charged With Being Irregular in Business Dealings.

New York, June 10.—The expulsion of W. E. Woodend, of the suspended firm of W. E. Woodend & Co., was announced on the Consolidated Stock Exchange today, the reason given being alleged irregularities in dealing. Dr. Woodend's prominence in other circles and the large number of branches maintained by the firm throughout the country made the somewhat sensational closing of the firm of more than ordinary interest, to which much was later added by the various court proceedings.

Pawnbroker Who Sold the Revolver Which Fired Fatal Bullet.

Has Identified the Gun and Says He Can Identify the Man to Whom the Weapon Was Sold.

New York, June 10.—Interest in the mystery surrounding the death of Caesar Young, the book maker, last Saturday, centered today in the efforts of the police to find J. Morgan Smith, the brother-in-law of Mrs. Nan Patterson in order to serve on him a body attachment requiring him to appear before the grand jury and tell what he may know of the case. Smith and his wife left their apartments in the St. Paul hotel Wednesday and it is not known where they are.

Stern, the pawnbroker, who sold the revolver found in Young's pocket, in his testimony before the grand jury, said he was positive he could identify the revolver and the man. He was given a view of Mrs. Patterson, but said he could not identify her as the woman who accompanied the man to whom he sold the revolver. The grand jury expressed a desire to have Stern confront J. Morgan Smith, and then it was learned that Smith had not appeared in answer to the summons that had been served on him.

Stern said that the woman who accompanied the purchaser of the revolver, seemed to be much interested in the weapon, and had him show her how to load, fire and eject the empty shells. She took the weapon in her hands and snapped the trigger two or three times while pointing it at the floor.

The district attorney and the attorneys for Mrs. Patterson are much annoyed by the many stories brought forward by alleged eye witnesses to the shooting. One of these persons brought forward a new account today alleging that Young was shot by a man who jumped to the step of the cab in which Young and Mrs. Patterson were sitting and fired at Young over Mrs. Patterson's shoulder, but this statement received very little credence.

There was to have been a coroner's hearing today in the Young inquest, but it was postponed until Monday. Mr. Levy of counsel for Mrs. Patterson, protested against the adjournment.

The following were elected: Past Great Commander, Rachael A. Bailey; Great Commander, Mrs. Burns, St. Louis, Mich.; Lieutenant Commander, Mrs. Anna Holt, Muskegon; Great Record Keeper, Miss Emma Bower, Ann Arbor; Great Finance Keeper, Mrs. Susie Graves, Port Huron; Great Medical Examiner, Dr. Holdom, Detroit.

Two new officers were created in the great camp K. O. T. M. today. They were Great Counsellor and Great Editor and John McIlwaine, of Port Huron will fill the first and S. D. Williams, of Battle Creek, the second. The board of auditors was also made elective today instead of appointive, and Judge D. R. Kendrick, of Saginaw, was made the first member. The others will be elected later.

THE MEDICS

And Most of Them Have Left for Their Homes.

The Meeting of the American Medical Association Was Replete With Interesting and Instructive Features.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 10.—There was a noticeable decrease in the number of doctors attending today's session of the American Medical Association, many of them having left for their homes.

The following association which did not complete their business yesterday, held brief sessions this morning and the convention closed with a general meeting at noon. The only section of general importance were those on children's diseases where a paper was read by Dr. P. M. McClanahan, of Omaha, on the "Care of Infants in Public Institutions," and the section of materia medica.

A paper on "The Therapeutic Value of Massage in Acute Diseases" was read by Dr. J. W. Seaver, of New Haven, Conn.

New York Stock Exchange Has Received a Solid Silver Gift From Him.

New York, June 10.—The Czar of Russia has sent to the New York stock exchange a magnificent solid silver gift as a token of his appreciation of the courtesy of the exchange in listing Russian bonds a year or two ago. A large part of the loan securities was floated in this country through the action of the stock exchange. The exact form of the Czar's gift has not yet been disclosed, although some idea of its size and value is afforded by the fact that three large cases are required to hold it. It is said to be of beautiful workmanship.

AGITATORS DRIVEN OUT.

Military Commander Ordered 97 Members of Miners' Union Deported.

Citizens Had Recommended It

As Necessary to the Peace and Prosperity of the District. One Hundred Other Cases of the Same Character Are Now Under Consideration.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 10.—Deportations are the order of the day. General Sherman M. Bell, military commander, has ordered that 97 members of the miners unions shall be taken outside of Teller county on a special train in accordance with the recommendation of the citizens which examined them. This committee was in session nearly all night investigating the cases of 100 other union men who are confined in the Victor armory and submitted another report to General Bell today, recommending further deportations.

"Within 48 hours this district will be rid of all agitators and other objectionable men" said General Bell today. One deportation after another will be made until none of the men who have terrorized the district so long will be left here. We intend to continue arresting men who are not wanted here and they will be run out as fast as possible. In running them down they may occur some fights, but I do not look for any serious trouble."

Squads are out scouring the hills in search of certain men who are wanted in connection with the Independence assassinations. Telegrams have been sent to sheriffs and chiefs of police at outside points asking them to watch for these persons, whose names are not made public. Sheriff Edward Bell has issued an order that all saloons in the district must remain closed until Monday, June 13.

Employees in all branches of business in this city, without an exception so far as known, have signed the agreement proposed by the citizens' alliance, "not to employ help of any kind that is in any way connected with the district trades assembly, or the state Federation of Labor, the union of the Western Federation of Miners or any kindred organization."

This agreement of the proprietors has caused consideration among the clerks and employees in shops and stores, who are members of the Retail clerks, barbers, carpenters, bartenders, cooks and other trade unions, as all will have to resign to hold their positions. The present scale of wages will prevail and individual unions will be tolerated, it is conceded, if they are conducted on conservative lines and do not give aid directly or indirectly to the Western Federation of Miners. This war against union is to be extended, the organizers of the movement say, to every city and town in the district.

The authorities now in control declare that there has not for months, been a time when life and property here as safe as they are today. The

The Excitement Is Subsiding. Cripple Creek, Colo., June 10.—The excitement throughout this district is gradually subsiding. Work was resumed today at mines employing non-union men which had been closed since Monday, the Stratton Independence being the first to re-open. The Portland mine remained closed by order of General Bell and its 500 employees will be compelled to abandon the union or leave the district.

The police and firemen are at it. The base ball teams from the two departments were bawled to the Wheeler park grounds this afternoon and at 2:30 o'clock time was called by Umpire John Overy of the Lima team, who undertook the difficult task of refereeing the long looked-for contest. The winners will take the gate and grand stand receipts, and a hand some picture that was donated by J. W. Rowlands and the first man to make a home run will receive one dollar's worth of laundry work free at the Niagara laundry. The following wireless telegraph bulletins were received at the Times-Democrat office from the scene of the battle after the contest opened:

2:31 p. m.—Umpire Overy has just called time. The first ball is thrown by Fireman "Southpaw" Eyster and Billstein is at the bat. Umpire calls "strike." Judge Bacome, who is on the bench for the first time since he dismissed the jury in mayor's court, has reversed the umpire's decision. Riot call sounds.

2:41 p. m.—Order has been restored. Fifteen hits a bigball and feels himself slipping. He's out. A hot one tip hits catcher "Pat" Taftinger and is hurled between two of his slats. Left Coats dispatches "Nipper" for a book. The ball is lost and Southern and Landair are running around the bases repeatedly, calling score. Each time they pass the home plate. Neuhrecht and Billstein are yelling in Dutch to the umpire who can understand nothing but Chinese. Simons is coming with his pet steamer to put the policemen out. Great excitement. "Bunk" DeVoe faints in front of "Buck" Heffern's gun. The bleachers are on fire.

3:29 p. m.—Order has just been restored but trouble is again precipitated by Higgins the agitator who is accusing Harrison and Frank Grant of wearing hose that belongs to the fire department. Companies C and K are called out. Can't see anything but dust and noise.

Philadelphia, June 10.—U. S. Senator Gen. Knox, who was, yesterday selected by the republican state leaders to succeed the late M. S. Quay in the U. S. Senate in an interview today said:

My retirement from the cabinet will in no way affect the policy of the administration pursued by President Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt stands for certain principles. Upon my resignation Mr. Roosevelt will experience no difficulty in selecting a man who will continue to represent those principles and carry out the national policy as set down by him.

"I cannot conceive how my retirement as attorney general will affect the presidential campaign. I have no fear that the action of the leaders of the republican party of Penna. in deciding to present my name for the senatorship will be made a campaign issue. One individual cannot injure the chances of President Roosevelt."

"I did not give the slightest thought that the senatorship until I was asked if I would agree to accept if it was tendered to me. I replied that if my name was viewed with favor by the party throughout the state I would consider it a high honor to succeed Senator Quay."

Gov. Pennypacker also announced that he will not call the legislature in extra session. This means that the appointment of Mr. Knox is for the unexpired term ending arch 4, 1905.

HE COULD PREACH.

At First He Thought He Couldn't, but Changed His Opinion.

In the early days of Mr. Adams in the west a circuit rider if he had a large field to cover, was sometimes permitted to have a colleague, who was frequently a young minister, just beginning to preach. The first of these was a circuit rider in a sense that thinly settled portion of central Illinois more than fifty years ago. The colleague assigned to him was Brother James Smith, an excellent young man, but with very little experience as a preacher.

One Sunday Mr. Thompson had an appointment at a small meeting house in the country, but having no severe cold he asked his young assistant to go along with him and preach the sermon, and the latter, as in duty bound, obeyed orders.

Brother Smith had never undertaken to preach in the presence of his more experienced colleague, and when, after the opening services, he rose and gave out his text he was visibly embarrassed.

He stammered through a few sentences, hesitated, made another attempt and came to a dead stop.

"What's the use, brethren?" he said, sitting down. "I can't preach!"

Brother Thompson saw that the case was one in which heroic measures were necessary.

"Young man," he whispered sternly in his ear, "you get up again and preach that sermon or I'll take you out in the grove after this meeting is over and give you a hard spanking, as sure as your name is Smith!"

An electric shock could not have operated quicker. Brother Smith rose to his feet again, his hesitation all gone, and in ringing tones he preached a sermon that is still remembered by aged survivors of that old time congregation as the most fervid and eloquent discourse they ever heard so young a man deliver.—Youth's Companion

THE ORIFLAMB.

A Standard That Has Played a Conspicuous Part in History.

The Carolingian standard was really no other than the oriflamb, which has played so conspicuous a part in French history, but was not formally adopted until 1082, in the reign of Philip I. It consisted of a red or crimson flag, mounted on a gilded staff, the flag being cut into three "vandykes," to represent "tongues of fire," with a silken tassel between each.

The old romance writers pretended that the infidel was blinded by merely looking upon it. In the "Roman de Carle" the Saracens are made to exclaim, "If we only see it, we shall be dead men," and Froissart affirms that as soon as it was unfurled at Roebecque the fog vanished from the French line of battle, leaving their enemies still shrouded in darkness.

Thus, red, the color which the church has consecrated to her martyrs, became in its turn the color of the French kings. They wore it on their coats of arms through the whole period of the crusades and as late as the closing decade of the fourteenth century were still faithful to this "glorious blazon."

The famous Du Guesclin, fighting against the English in Poitou, wore the red cross, while his adversaries wore the white. But after the great defeat at Agincourt in 1415 the French kings abandoned the oriflamb, because it had been assumed by Henry V. and his successors, and adopted white as a national color when England had discarded it. This is a curious but little known historical fact.—All the Year Round.

Teeth as Sentinels.

"When thou sittest to eat with a ruler consider diligently him that is before thee," says the Hebrew proverb, warning a king's guest to regulate his appetite by his host's temper. Boswell, Dr. Johnson's biographer, gives in his notebook a modern paraphrase of the old Jewish proverb: "I said of a rich man who entertained us luxuriously that, although he was exceedingly ridiculous, we restrained ourselves from talking of him as we might do lest we should lose his feasts. 'He makes our teeth sentinels on our tongues,' said I."

An Endless Chain.

"Isn't that the same suit you had last year, Uncle Peter?" the agent for sewing machines inquired. The postmaster, storekeeper, town clerk and ice-man looked at him in silence for a moment. "Yes, sir," he said at last in a chilly tone. "It is the same suit I had last year, and it is the same suit I so asked me last year if it wasn't the same suit I had the year before. Now, have you got any more questions to ask, or will they hold over till next season?"

Wapakoneta is making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the Northwestern Ohio Volunteer Firemen's Convention, which will be held at that place on Wednesday, June 15th. Almost every town in Northwestern Ohio will be represented and many of them by uniformed companies accompanied by a brass band so that it is safe to predict that the crowd will be one of the largest ever assembled in the Auglaize county town. The citizens committee has offered special prizes to the fire companies and the bands and a very interesting time is anticipated. Last year, Delphos was taxed to its utmost capacity to entertain the convention, but the people of Wapakoneta guarantee that they will be equal to the occasion this year.

Miss Nellie Jordan, of Bellefontaine, has just arrived in this country from Siberia, where she spent eight years with her mother. At the outbreak of hostilities between Japan and Russia, Miss Jordan was forced to flee from Vladivostok and on her arrival at Nagasaki, was held a prisoner of war by the Japanese. During the trip to Nagasaki, the vessel on which she was taken passage was under constant surveillance, and when it came to anchor an armed force of Japanese marines seized the vessel and arrested the girl, who is only 16 years of age, charging her with being a Russian spy.

She was informed that her arrest had been ordered from Tokyo, but when finally the officers were convinced she was an American, her release was ordered, after she had been several days in custody.

LAKE TROUBLE SETTLED.

Cleveland, June 10.—President Livingston of the Lake Carriers' Association stated today that President William Penje of the seamen's union had called at the headquarters of the Lake Carriers today and assured that all contracts made by his organization would be carried out in both letter and spirit, and that there would positively be no sympathetic strike by the men.

Mr. Livingston said that his association had hired a number of captains and mates today and that they would put aboard of vessels about ready to sail.

The steamer A. B. Wolvin, the largest vessel on the great lakes cleared from Lorain on her initial trip, for Duluth today, commanded by Captain Norcross, superintendent of the Wolfen St. Lawrence fleet. She carried a full complement of officers and men. A number of other vessels are preparing to clear from lower lake ports. She carried 10,300 tons of coal. It is said the vessel could have easily carried another thousand tons.

EZEMA

SETS THE SKIN ON FIRE.

No disease causes so much bodily discomfort, or itches, burns and stings like Eczema. It begins often with a slight redness of the skin, followed by pustules or blisters from which a gummy, sticky fluid oozes, which dries and scales off or forms hard looking sores and scabs. It appears on different parts of the body, but oftentimes upon the back, arms, hands, legs and face, and is a veritable torment at times, especially at night or when overheated.

The cause of Eczema is a too acid condition of the blood. The terrifying itching and burning are produced by the overflow through the glands and pores of the skin of the fiery poisons with which the blood-current is overloaded. While external applications, such as washes, soaps, salves and powders are soothing and cooling, they do not enter into the blood itself or touch the real cause of the disease, but S. S. S. does, and purifies, enriches and strengthens the thin acid blood and cleanses the general system, when the skin clears off and Eczema and all its terrifying symptoms disappear. Book on the Skin and its diseases free. No charge for medical advice.

Pretty Girls Seen Competing With Men in All Lines.

Marvelous displays of strength by young and handsome women, fearless exhibitions of dexterity on the ground, expert gymnastic displays, acrobatic feats, and aerial performances, all by youthful and pretty females, is a delightful sight in the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth. Comely young women ride bareback horses, do manege and high-school acts, ride desperate races, turn and twist themselves in marvelous contortion feats, dive into nets, execute perilous flights through the air, turn somersaults on the naked backs of speeding horses, enter cages of wild beasts, give sidesaddle exhibitions of perfect horsemanship, and do all tricks and feats ever performed by men. And there is one troupe of marvelous acrobats, composed of seven ladies, with not a male member. In this connection also may be mentioned the only lady clowns in the world, and the lady object-holders. Other women are seen who give special exhibitions of an instructive and curious character. In fact the wonderful and varied feats that are performed by women are something never seen before, and comprise almost every conceivable human possibility. Women have largely entered the field of circus performances, and in many cases are better than men performers, for they have a natural ease and grace lacking in the sterner sex. The Barnum & Bailey show is really a wonderful affair, excelling in grandeur every previous effort in the line of amusements. With such attractions as Cyclo, the Kinetic Demon, Vole the Voltant, Chico and Solo, the Unicyclists, and Anclotti in his wonderful act of Leaping the Gap, nearly 100 trained horses, three herds of elephants, with cages of wild beasts, a herd of giraffes, camels, ponies and strange giant dwarf and pigmy animals, with 500 horses, with races, thrilling events, 16 champion riders, 20 clowns, and performances in three rings, on three stages and a race-track, it certainly is the greatest show on earth, and one that all should see. When the show arrives here on Monday, June 27th, a 10-foot street parade, with a 10 horse team, driven by one man, will be seen on the streets, itself a wondrous exhibition of the splendors of modern circus ideas.

Barber Refused to Shave an Italian and a Fuss Followed.

The Erie Assists in Fourth of July Celebration. Social, Personal and Local News Items of Interest to All.

Last evening south Lima came near being the scene of a riot, and only through the intervention of five patrolmen, a bloody scene was averted. About 7:30 two Italians, Nicolas Leopo and Antonio Mustepolo, who are working west of town, entered the Hoffman Bros.' barber shop and requested a shave, and upon being refused the service by Jacob Hoffman, the two became hostile, and were ejected from the shop. In a few moments they were reinforced by Minto Garlo, another Italian who runs a shoe shop just south of the barber shop, and bad language, and threats were hurled at the barbers. A crowd soon gathered, but the foreigners had but few sympathizers. A hurry-up call was sent into police headquarters. In the meantime some one in the crowd cried, "Hang them," "Run them out of town," etc., and the crowd was almost to a point where some action would have been taken when a couple of blue coats arrived and arrested the pair, the shoemaker having taken French leave of his comrades and going to his home on Tanner avenue, hid in a closet. A few minutes later a trio of hooligans appeared, dispersed the crowd and went in search of Garlo. At the Garlo home the officers were told that the object of their search was not at home, but Bilestein and Armstrong pulled him out of the closet a few seconds later and took him to the station.

In an interview with Hoffman Bros. this morning they said: "The fellows came in, evidently drunk, and were so dirty and greasy looking, that we told them we would not shave them. Why, every railroad man in south Lima would boycott us if they knew of our having encouraged the patronage of that class of customers.

The trio were arraigned before the mayor this morning, and were given a fine of $4.00 each.

Bamboo Club Meets.

Mrs J. M. Davis, of west Kibby street, delightfully entertained the Bamboo club last Wednesday evening. Refreshments, games and music were time-passing and enjoyable features of the evening. Club guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, of Chicago, and D. Heacock, of Oak Shade, O.

The L. T. S. C.'s met with Mrs Naas on east Elm street, yesterday afternoon. A club guest was Mrs. Vortner, of Beaverdam. Their next meeting will be at the Wm Osburn home on south Elizabeth street.

People living in outside towns should remember these arrangements and come to Lima to enjoy.

Mr. Garber has shown himself a capable and aggressive handler of campaigns, and good things can be expected of him in the coming national contest.

preachers, undertakers and cemetery bosses against burial of the dead on the Sabbath day, is an indication to a good many people that the preacher is afraid of being over-worked on the Lord's day, and that the undertakers and grave digger want to be sure of one whole day off in each week for up-to-date pleasure, such as witnessing a ball game or vaudeville performance.
Such conditions make one seriously ask himself whether the world is really growing better, as the good men and women insist it is.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.
"I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market," says Daniel Benz, of Ottoville, Iowa, "and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house.
I sincerely recommend it to all." For sale by H. E. Vorkamp and W. M.
Melville.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 10.—C. P.
Dewey, the millionaire and ranch owner died early today at the home of his niece, Mrs. B. Walker Peterson, at her suburban residence at Woods-tion of diseases which originated in the formation of a carbuncle on his face. He was heavily interested in Chicago realty and was a large land owner in Kansas, Nebraska and Texas.

He was the father of Chauncey Dewey, who, with two cowboys was recently

SUDDEN

Visit of the Angel of Death

Brings Sadness to the Home of George Flammer.

Miss Della Flammer Stricken While
Going to the Assistance of a Neighbor Who Was Suffering.

Miss Della Flammer, an estimable young lady and a teacher of the local public schools, died very suddenly near the home of her father, George Flammer, 948 west High street, shortly after 6 o'clock last evening, death resulting, as stated by the physician who was called, from an attack of neuritis of the heart. The sudden and unexpected death was a sad and severe shock to the family and friends of the young lady and no arrangements for the funeral services have yet been made.

The deceased was a graduate of the class of 1902 of the Lima high school, and had been engaged during the past year as a teacher in the primary grade at the west Spring street school building. Yesterday she spent the day reviewing some examination papers, concluding the term's duties as a teacher. In the evening, Samuel Saw-miller, who resides next door to the Flammer family, was stricken with a slight stroke of paralysis, and a messenger was sent to the Flammer home for assistance. Miss Flammer hurriedly started to the aid of her neighbor, and had just entered the yard surrounding the Sawmiller residence, when she suddenly staggered and fell unconscious upon the ground. She was tenderly carried back to her own home and a physician was hastily summoned, but all efforts to restore her to consciousness were futile, and soon the sad announcement that life was extinct was made.

PRODUCED A SQUEEZE.

Columbus, June 9.—The attention of state Mine Inspector George Harrison, has been called to the conditions at Salineville, Columbiana county, where constant mining for years has removed the coal vein almost completely from beneath the village and produced a condition known to mining men as a squeeze.

The earth is gradually settling in places and the residents fear that the village will drop some six or seven feet, the thickness of the coal vein that has been removed. Harrison is without authority to render assistance, as the only remedy is to bulkhead up the worked out territory.

head. The Union is the leading club the suicide. He was 50 years of age.

DIPLOMAS AWARDED

the Thirty-Nine Members of the High School Senior Class.

Exercises Held Last Evening

the Presence of a Large Audience in Fourt Opera House. Usual Long Program of Orations Omitted. Professor Smith's Address.

The final exercises attending the closing of the public schools took place last night at Faure's opera house when the senior class of 39 members made their adieu in the presence of the usual large audience and their diplomas. The only participation the class had in the program was the singing of two well-known choruses under the direction of Lull, one at the beginning and another at the close of the exercises. It became the custom to do away with the long list of orations, as the class have grown to such large numbers and both the audience and the class have now come to enjoy the final class address delivered by an actor of state or national repute. Following the opening chorus, "Hail to the Nation," Supt. Miller in a few words, introduced Prof. Josiah R. Smith, of the Ohio State University, who had been chosen to deliver the address to the class of 1904. Prof. Miller paid a glowing tribute to the graduates who had now reached the crown event in their school life, and referred to them as deserving of the highest praise for their excellent work during the four years course in high school. Prof. Smith who had been a tutor of Supt. Miller's attended a university of Germany, and was able in his treatment of a contrast between the Fatherland and America, to bring out the relative differences in public and private life clearly and strongly. Following the introduction of his subject, Prof. Smith said:

"Between the great empire of Europe and the great central republic of North America, there are too many bonds of union to permit us as nations to remain mutually cold and careless, and a careful examination of the great and permanent differences in the national treatment of social, religious and political questions in Germany and the United States would do much toward that understanding of each other's character and motives, which is the indispensable foundation of harmony between individuals and nations."

Religious Contrasts.

"The chief contrast between the two lands is to be found, not in the respective adherents to the two great confessions, but in the relations of state to the church and in the popular conception of the claims of religion upon life of Germany's 56,000,000 inhabitants, 35,000,000 are Protestant and 21,000,000 are Catholic. By the late U. S. census it is shown that of 90,000,000 and all other denominations 50,000,000. In Germany church life is injured by being deprived of self-government—sacredotalism is supreme. It is a church of the preachers. It is expected to be loyal to the state and governmental measures, hence it is antagonized by the liberals."

Paternalism.

"Another point of contrast is to be noted in the paternal—even grand motherly—care of the government in Germany over the people; as set over against the free and easy independence manifested by our sovereign citizens. This is most noticeable in the public places. The government says you must not injure yourself nor take any chances of injuring yourself. Warnings, prohibitions, or grudging permissions are placed on all sides. The transaction of business in which the official's meet the public is provokingly slow. If you dispatch a box by freight or a parcel by post, nothing is more certain than that it will reach its destination; nothing more certain than that it will be a long time on the way."

Our American journals are a queer mixture of shrewdness and extravagance of high moral sentiment and lowly slang; of comment and caricature; of generosity and grotesque unfairness. The German newspaper is nothing of this. Decorous printed for men, its standard of tone and language is neither clamorous or starchy. Its circle of readers is accordingly limited to cafes, hotels, the inevitable gardens and the people's reading rooms, and

Differences in Political Forms.

Germany is an empire, consisting of 25 sovereign states—four kingdoms, Prussia, Saxony, Bavaria and Wurttemberg; six grand duchies; five duchies; seven principalities and three free towns, Hamburg, Bremen and Lübeck. To these should be added the imperial territory of Alsace-Lorraine, the prize of the Franco-Prussian war, administered and governed from Berlin, somewhat as our own district is controlled by the congress of the United States. Our states are certainly

Matters of Education.

It has been said that in no land is primary education so widely diffused as in Germany, and in no land has higher education been so widely diffused as in Germany. Germany says her children shall be educated under the control of the state. Education is made compulsory, and the law is enforced. Each child from the age of six to fourteen is obliged to attend school and time lost by absence must be made up day for day. In addition to the traditional three R's—reading, writing and 'rithmetic, the German school boy gets a fourth—religion. The American boy emerges from the high school (sometimes) with very vague ideas about the nature and extent of the higher education offered him. But the German youth is familiar with the scope and relative reputation of the great universities. If he is very moderate, he will study at only two or three before taking his degree, but many students resolve from university to university, reserving until the last of course the particular college from which they wish to bear away the coveted degree. With us, on the other hand, it is rare that a young man changes his college and then usually on account of special circumstances."

Character Contrasted.

Two striking traits of the German character are their love for flowers and success with them, and their deep rooted love for an al fresco life in the summer time. A truly national institution is the concert garden, which we try to stigmatize by calling it a beer garden and then remembering what the word denotes to good American minds. In Germany it is friendly cheerfulness, beautiful music, colored lamps, the busy, quiet waiters, and, above all, absolute good order. No signs on the trees enjoining proper behavior. The policeman, so conspicuous in the streets of German cities, never feels it his duty to invade the gardens, for he knows that his presence will not be required. In drawing this sketch, which, I assure you, is not exaggerated, I am fully aware of the great and radical difference in taste, traditions and beliefs which would make the successful introduction of such an institution as the German concert garden into America, and possibly an acquisition of doubtful value, if we could import it with all its attractions. I believe an American home life, with all its occasional wastefulness and other little drawbacks, to be the simplest and finest exponent of domestic happiness that exists, but I have only desired to set before you in its true light, a most universally diffused and frequently misunderstood institution of the Fatherland."

Position of Women.

Woman's position has been held by the students of civilization to be a measure of a nation's enlightenment. It has been said that woman in Asia is a plaything, in Africa a slave, in England and America a companion—and in Germany—what? It is the result of my observation that we cannot call her in the truest sense, a companion. She is often a servant. Her entrance into the ranks of art or authorship is rather frowned on than encouraged. Something of the old feeling which made savages drown their infant girls must remain in a country where congratulations on the birth of a son and condolences on the birth of a daughter are the rule and not the exception. Women in Germany perform many labors which we allow only men to do—pulling carts in the street or the field; being degraded to be the yokefellow of ox or ass or dog; polishing gentlemen's shoes, and rarely getting from masculine courtesy the offer of a seat in a car or public hall."

A General Summary.

"In music, Germany leads the world in higher education, she teaches the world, and her methods in 21 universities are gladly copied by our best colleges. With her incomparable army she can strike a blow with mailed hand, such as no other single country would care to feel. Music, education and war! Three mighty forces to refine, to civilize, to crush."

"We cannot, as two nations of widely different temperaments and surroundings, work with the same methods. But the same end we may labor to attain—the betterment of man, the hastening of the good time when wars and rumors of wars shall be as barbaric and un-Christian as slavery. When that better day dawns, may we find Germany and America each the better for its knowledge of the other fully represented."

To the Graduates.

Prof. Smith closed his address with a brief personal talk to the class, in which he admonished them to keep up their studies and not be touched by the gospel of indifference. "Next to the supremacy of character," he said, "I would wish to leave with you is the hope that you will not abandon intellectual pursuits, no matter what your career may be. Read the best books along some chosen line. Have a hobby—it will not hurt you as much as having none. Keep your life fresh and sweet by contact with the best minds, and if you so fortify yourself you will have neither time or inclination for the baser things of the world."

Presentation of Diplomas.

Supt. Miller hit upon a pretty idea in the presentation of the certificates

THE BLUEM'S NEW STORE.

The Store That Leads.

The policy of Bluem's New Store is on broad-gauge twentieth century lines. Our success has been due mainly to these cardinal principles of business—satisfactory quality in every grade—nothing too cheap that it will not give satisfaction. The same price on the same goods, to everyone—and that price the lowest possible.

KNIGHTS

Of Pythias Will Attend the Fair at St. Louis.

Uniformed Rank of the Order Will Camp on the Grounds and See the Big Show.

The Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias of Ohio have solved the problem of seeing the St. Louis fair at a minimum cost. General T. W. Minshall, of Cleveland, commanding the Ohio brigade, has just returned from the World's Fair city where he completed arrangements for the Ohio encampment, which will begin June 18, and close June 26.

According to General Minshall, 600 tents will be erected on the grounds just behind the administration building, and the Ohioans including 150 Columbus Knights, will live in these tents. Each knight will be supplied with one admission ticket to the grounds which will cost 50 cents, and this ticket will be good throughout the encampment. The tents will be supplied by the fair management and the food, including three meals per day, will cost each knight 75 cents.

The Columbus regiment will be in charge of Colonel H. M. Innis and the state body will be under command of General Minshall.

The Ohio encampment at St. Louis, will not prevent the Buckeye knights from attending the national encampment to be held in Louisville in August.

Do you want the little one's happy, strong, robust and healthy? One package of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make them strong and well. No pay if it fails. 35 cents, tea or tablets. H. F. Vorkamp.

INDICTED FOR MURDER.

Cambridge, Mass., June 10.—Charles L. Tucker, of Andover, has been indicted by the Middlesex county grand jury today, on the charge of murdering Miss Mabel Page, at her home in Weston, March 31. Tucker was not arraigned but will be brought into court sometime during the criminal session of court which meets next week.

The murder of Miss Page attracted wide attention because of the mystery surrounding the case. It was at first thought she had committed suicide, but later developments indicated murder. Suspicion pointed to Tucker, and he was arrested but after an examination was released. Later, on new evidence, he was re-arrested and held for the grand jury.

$500° REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED

BACKED up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weak- nesses peculiar to women ever attained, the prop- ertors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money, of the United States for any case of Leucor- rhea, Female Weakness, Dyspepsia, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reason- able trial of their means of cure.

No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out" as the saying goes, on such a proposition. But they know whereof they speak. They have the most re- markable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially de- signed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, there- fore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such unrivaled curative properties as to fully warrant its makers in publishing the remarkable offer above made in the utmost good faith.

Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century. From this fact it will readily be seen how utterly foolish it would be for them to make the above unprecedented and remarkable offer if they were not basing it on con- fidence in a remedy of an unparalleled record.

WHEN LOVE INVITES

The woman follows the man of her choice though the path leads out of Eden into a world untrod and un- tried. What is her reward? Many a time when her health is broken by the burdens she has borne for the man's sake, her reward is to see him turn from her to seek rosiest cheeks and brighter eyes. It is man's nature to crave beauty in the wife as in the maid. And what woman is there, who would not be happy to keep her maiden bloom when motherhood has crowned her wisely? Some women seem to have found this secret of perpetual youth.

'WAS WASTING AWAY.

"I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert B. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doc- tors with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles com- pletely cured me and I am now sound and well." Sold by H. F. Vorkamp, and W. M. Melville.

A Case of Necessity.

"My son," said the parson to a small boy who was digging, "don't you know that it is a sin to dig on Sunday except in case of necessity?"

"Yes, sir," replied the youngster.

"Then why don't you stop it?" asked the good man.

"Cause this is a case of necessity," replies the young philosopher. "A teller can't fish without bait."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Age cannot wither them. They have learned that fairness of face and form depend upon the health, and that the general health depends upon the local womanly health. They establish regu- larity of the periods. They dry the disagreeable drains which draw the lus- ter from the eyes and the vermilion from the lips as well as sap the body's strength. They quench the internal fires of inflammation in which the very elements of beauty are consumed. They heal the ulcer which gnaws into the very life.

ILLS THAT VEX HER.

They walk the world as wonders— women exempt from the sacrifice to love. How have they done this? By the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Pres- cription, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. It matters not how weak the woman is, or how sick she is, "Favorite Prescription" will cure the womanly ills that vex her: will round out the sunken curves of her form, put light in her eyes, tint her cheeks with health's garbation, and make her a glad and happy woman. Hundreds of thousands of women testify to the truth of these statements.

"A short time ago I was almost dead with nervous prostration, general debility and female weakness," writes Mrs. Loretto Webster, of 317 Virginia Avenue, Lexington, Ky., Worthy Treasurer, In- dependent Order of Good Templars.

"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to me as a sure cure, and I found this to be true, for I obtained splendid results, securing fine health. Women ought to be grateful to think that there is one safe and sure cure offered to them for their troubles. I advise every sick and suffering woman to stop spending money and wasting time with doctors' prescriptions, when a few bottles of your remedy is sure to cure. I am the happy mother of two children, boy aged sixteen, and girl, eight years."

SMALL BOY TOLD HIS TALE

And a Bunch of Counterfeiters Are Now Resting Behind the Prison Bars.

New York, June 10.—Through a small boy telling a patrolman that he "knew where he could get money for nothing as he saw men making it," the police of the 104th street station assert that today, they caught two men in the act of making counter- feit coins. At the same time they claim to have captured one of the most complete outfits for counterfeit- ing found in a long time. It included a stamp press capable of making 500 coins an hour, a portable forge, en- gravers, carpenters and blacksmiths tools, a safe thought to be filled with coins, and a large quantity of loose counterfeit fractional silver and nickels. The prisoners gave their names as Antonio Vomte and Guiseppi Rizzo.

"One of the judges sits from the bench, when we appeared, before the court Tuesday," said Wheeler, "that if the court was to assist us in having an early decision from the supreme court the case should be passed upon without delay.

"Everything that was said regard- ing the case at Dayton indicated that it was the intention of the court to give us a hearing at once."
